Directions from Coach Station

1. The Coach Station is to the right of St Andrew Square on the map.
2. Turn right out the main entrance onto St Andrew's Square.
3. Keep walking for a few minutes (onto Dublin St) until you see Albany St on your right.
4. Walk a few minutes until you reach number 44 on your left. Down the steps to the lower entrance.
5. Coaches are available via Citylink StageCoach Megabus.

Directions from Train Station

1. Waverley station on the map is just where the railway line crosses between Waverley Bridge and North Bridge.
2. Come out up Waverley Bridge onto Princes Street.
3. Turn up North St Andrew Street.
4. Keep walking for a few minutes (onto Dublin St) until you see Albany St on your right.
5. Walk a few minutes until you reach number 44 on your left. Down the steps to the lower entrance.
6. Train times are available at National Rail.
7. NB: Avoid accidentally getting out at Haymarket, which would entail walking much further or catching a bus!

Directions by Bus

1. This depends on your bus. Catch a bus into the City Centre and get off at the "East End" of Princes Street, and follow the directions as for the train station.
2. Buses are available via Lothian Buses First. For Lothian Buses, click under 'How To' to view the interactive map.

Directions from Airport

1. Catch the airport bus or train into the city and follow the direction as above for buses or trains.
2. Airport Flight Times are available at Edinburgh Airport.

Directions by Car

1. Go to Google Maps.
2. Type EH1 3QR and click the Search button.
3. Click Get Directions on the top left.
4. Type your starting postcode or place in (A), then click Get Directions.
5. With driving, the basic thing to note is that the Centre of Edinburgh is full of one-way traffic and tram-works, and rush hour is between 08:00-09:30 and 16:00-18:00. Your main route will be to come down Broughton Street and turn off into Albany Street.
6. Parking exists outside the front of the Centre. On Sundays and all days after 18:30, it is free; between 08:30-18:30 Mon-Sat there is a £1.60/hr charge (max 4 hours).

There is also space for 7 at the back (check it has been opened) by going down Albany Street, right down Albany Lane and turning right, until you see the grilled gate on your right.

Accessibility

1. Lower Ground - for those with mobility difficulties, the best entrance to the Lower Ground is via the back steps in the car park - you can view them here.

Cafes and Eating

1. The Baha'i Centre has a microwave and basement area that are always suitable for eating in.
2. There is a Real Foods wholefood shop if you exit the Centre, turn left, go a few metres down Albany Street onto Broughton Street, and turn right a few metres, and cross over to the other side.
3. There are also Cafes just close to Real Foods on Broughton Road at the end of Albany Street
